

CONSTITUTION OF SPELTHORNE BOROUGH COUNCIL

PART 1 – Summary and explanation

The Council's Constitution

This introduction, together with all the documents that follow, make up the Constitution of Spelthorne Borough Council. The Constitution is the governance framework within which the Council operates. It is approved at a meeting of the Borough Council and kept under review. It sets out how decisions are made and the procedures which are followed. Some of these processes are required by the law, while others are a matter for the Council to choose. Nothing in this Constitution supersedes legislation.

What's in the Constitution?

The Constitution is divided into 15 articles (Part 2) which set out the basic rules governing the Council's business. These are followed by three sections:

Part 3 - Decision Making - this section includes details of the Council's decision-making mechanisms and a scheme of delegation setting out who is responsible for taking which decision;

Part 4 - Procedure Rules – this section details how decisions are to be taken;

Part 5 - Codes and Protocols – this section sets out the expected standards of behaviour for Officers (employees of the Council) and Elected Members (councillors) and the corporate Management of the Council.

Article 1 of the Constitution sets out the Council's key aims in preparing the Constitution. Articles 2-15 explain the rights of the public and how the key parts of the Council operate. These are:

- The Council and its Members (Article 2)
- The Public and the Council (Article 3)
- The Council (Article 4)
- The Mayor (Article 5)
- The Leader of the Council (Article 6)
- Service, Regulatory and Other Committees (Article 7)
- The Standards Committee (Article 8)
- Joint Arrangements (Article 9)
- Officers (Article 10)
- Decision making (Article 11)
- Finance, contracts and legal matters (Article 12)
- Review and revision of the Constitution (Article 13)

- Suspension, interpretation and publication of the Constitution (Article 14)

How the Council operates

Councillors

The Council is composed of 39 councillors elected every four years. Councillors are democratically accountable to residents of their Ward. Only registered electors of the borough or those living, working or owning property in the borough are eligible to seek election for the office of Councillor. Their overriding duty is to the whole borough, but they have a special duty to their constituents, including those who did not vote for them.

Councillors have to agree to follow a code of conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties. All councillors receive training and ongoing advice on complying with the code of conduct.

Council meetings

All Councillors meet together as the Council. Meetings of the Council are normally open to the public. It is at Council meetings that councillors decide the Council's overall policies and set the budget each year. The Council appoints a councillor as its Leader, sets up and makes appointments to its Service and other Committees and confirms the appointment of the Chief Executive (also referred to as the Head of Paid Service).

The Council has agreed procedures to enable the public to take part in Council meetings by asking questions of councillors, presenting petitions and also commenting on matters being discussed by the Council before it makes decisions. The procedures are set out in Standing Orders (See Part 4).

The Mayor

The Mayor and Deputy Mayor will be elected by the Council annually from amongst the councillors.

The Mayor is the First Citizen of the Borough and acts as an ambassador on behalf of the Borough. As a symbol of the Council and its area, the Mayor gives encouragement and shows appreciation for the many groups and organisations who also serve the residents of the Borough. The Mayor will attend such civic and ceremonial functions as the Council and he or she determines appropriate. The Mayor will act in a non-partisan manner and in the interests of the whole Council.

The Leader

The Council will appoint a Leader annually, who will hold the most significant elected Member role within the Council. The Leader will be the political head of the Council and the focus for policy direction and community development. The Leader will also be the chief advocate and spokesperson for the whole of the Borough.

The Council will also appoint the Deputy Leader at its Annual Meeting, who is able to exercise the functions of the Leader when he or she is unavailable.

The Leader will chair meetings of the Policy and Resources Committee.

How decisions are made

The Service Committees

The Council will establish a number of Service Committees to be responsible for most day-to-day decisions. The terms of reference of the Committees are set out in Part 3 of this Constitution. The Service Committees are made up of a Chairman and a vice-Chairman and a committee membership determined by the Council.

Appointments to the Service Committees will be made at the Annual Meeting each year.

The Regulatory and other Committees

The Council has a number of other Committees which deal primarily with the regulatory functions which are not the responsibility of any of the Service Committees; for example: Planning Committee, Licensing Committee, Audit Committee and Standards Committee.

Joint Committees

In conjunction with other authorities and public bodies the Council may establish and participate in Joint Committees. These joint arrangements are described in Article 10 of this Constitution.

Statutory Scrutiny functions

Statutory requirements mean that the Council must make arrangements for scrutiny of certain matters, namely:

- matters relating to the health of the authority's population. Recommendations may be made to health bodies or other relevant authorities;
- the power to scrutinise the activities of those responsible for crime and disorder strategies.

In addition, the Council will also scrutinise the exercise by relevant authorities of flood risk management functions which may affect the local authority's area.

The Council's scrutiny functions will be undertaken by the appropriate Service Committee.

Responsibility for the statutory scrutiny functions relating to health will be undertaken by Surrey County Council.

The Council's Staff

The Council employs people (called 'officers' or staff) to give advice, implement decisions and manage the day-to-day delivery of its services. Some officers have a specific duty to ensure that the Council acts within the law and uses its resources wisely. A code of practice governs the relationships between officers and councillors. Officers will comply with the Staff Code of Conduct set out in Part 5 of this Constitution.

The Public's Rights

The Public have a number of rights in their dealings with the Council. These are set out in Article 3. Some of these are legal rights, whilst others depend on the Council's own processes. The local Citizens' Advice Bureau can advise on individuals' legal rights.

Where members of the public use specific Council services, they may have additional rights. These are not covered in this Constitution. The Council welcomes participation by the public in its work. For further information on your rights as a citizen, please contact the Group Head of Corporate Governance.
