

How the roles work together: overview

The three roles are purposefully designed to have some clear similarities in practice techniques and values, and also some differences in the distinct role they play day to day deep knowledge of and presence in the local area + focus on the strengths of people and community led change + strong relationships and partnership working + surfacing insights for action and future transformation

