

The secretary of the Charity has supplied the following information about their nominee:

David (Dominic) O'Malley is a current Trustee seeking reappointment.

He has lived in Laleham for 11 years and took an early active role within the village community by joining the Residents Association Committee in 2013, on which he served on for seven years.

With an interest in local history he applied to be, and was appointed, Curator of Laleham Heritage Centre in 2015. Through a small volunteer team, the Heritage Centre actively promotes interest and knowledge of the historic Parish of Laleham through monthly openings, locally published articles and information circulations.

David is currently the Trustees' treasurer.

He is a recently retired Magistrate who served on the Surrey Bench, principally at Staines Magistrates Court.
